Classement EMLYON des Revues Académiques.

*Classification par ordre alphabétique
(Liste entrant en vigueur au 1^{er} septembre 2009)*

Avant-propos

Le classement des revues académiques présenté dans ce document a été élaboré et discuté au Comité Scientifique de EMLYON. Nous le concevons comme un outil d'aide à la décision, tant en matière d'évaluation des chercheurs qu'en matière de définition des stratégies de publications. En fournissant des repères quant aux revues connues et/ou de référence, il doit aider les professeurs de la faculté EMLYON à se repérer dans le maquis des supports importants, et à envisager les degrés d'accessibilité à ces supports.

Le Classement EMLYON des Revues Académiques est organisé en catégories. Pour l'essentiel, il couvre le champ de l'Economie et des Sciences de Gestion. Néanmoins, il intègre aussi des revues de références dans des champs connexes dans lesquels les Sciences de Gestion puisent abondamment, notamment le droit et les sciences juridiques, la psychologie, la sociologie, les mathématiques, les statistiques, l'intelligence artificielle, etc. Il tient compte :

- de l'existence de revues considérées unanimement comme de haute qualité au plan international. Souvent, les comités de lecture et les comités éditoriaux de ces revues sont composés des meilleurs chercheurs d'une discipline donnée : RANG A. Une liste restrictive de 25 revues de RANG A+ rassemble des revues qui apparaissent comme particulièrement remarquables. Une liste restrictive de 4 revues CIBLES rassemble des revues susceptibles de véhiculer le positionnement EMLYON 'Educating Entrepreneurs for the World'.
- de l'existence de revues sélectives et de haute qualité mais moins réputées, soit parce qu'elles traitent de thématiques plus pointues et disposent donc d'audiences plus disciplinaires, soit parce que n'étant pas de langue anglaise elles s'adressent à des auditoires géographiquement restreints : RANG B.
- de l'existence de revues à comité de lecture dont la qualité des articles est inférieure à celle des revues B, &/ou dont la diffusion est très restreinte, &/ou dont les dispositifs de sélection sont moins exigeants, et de revues proposant des articles à orientation nettement professionnelle : RANG C.
